

Bates-Hendricks Exploring Inclusion in the Urban Times

As we have been unable to find a replacement newsletter editor, we are looking into having our newsletter articles included in the Urban Times. If you end up with a copy of the Urban Times on your doorstep in the coming months, you can assume our neighborhood newsletter is in there instead. Contact news@bateshendricks.org with any questions or comments regarding this change.

Urban Times is a newsmagazine that is published every month except January and serves as the official neighborhood newsletter for a number of Indianapolis neighborhoods. For more information about the Urban Times and for archived issues, visit digitalindy.org/cdm/landingpage/collection/utn.

Letter from the President

BHNA President, Laura Tease

Dear Neighbors,

As you might have noticed, there have been some changes in our neighborhood board. Lance Boehmer, our former president, has stepped down since he will be moving to Denver this month. We thank Lance for his years of service to this neighborhood and assisting with various transit initiatives. Best of luck in Denver!

With that vacancy, I am stepping in to take over the role as president. I'd like to take a chance to tell you a little about myself. My fiancé, Tyler, and I moved to Bates-Hendricks in 2014 and purchased our house on Orange Street (to the west of East Street). Since then, I have served as treasurer and vice president before filling this vacancy. Outside of the neighborhood, I work as a mental health counselor and behavior analyst at a local not-for-profit. You'll find me crafting and gardening most days that I'm not chasing little children around the clinic.

Feel free to stop by and say hello if we are out and about! I look forward to meeting everyone and continuing our growth as a neighborhood.

We currently have some other vacancies on the board as well. If you are interested in helping our neighborhood to continue to grow in a positive direction, please contact me at president@bateshendricks.org. See you around!
