

Bates-Hendricks Community Garden Needs Your Help!

The Bates-Hendricks Neighborhood Community Garden, located at 302 Lincoln Street (and S. Alabama Street), was nominated for the Indianapolis Neighborhood Resource Center (INRC) Collaborative Spirit Award this year. Our neighbor, José Rodriguez, produced a short video about the community garden's success over the past few months which can be viewed at <https://youtu.be/9bkUXGuVUyw>.

Now we need your help and there are a couple of ways to do it! First, you can donate $25 at www.bateshendricks.org to the fence picket sponsorship for the fence that encompasses the park that is in need of repairs. Secondly, if you have time to help out at the park, either regularly or on rotation with others, please reach out to Beautification Committee Chair Erin Barcy at beautification@bateshendricks.org. At this time, the garden is expected to be dormant during the winter months.
