

Neighborhood Gardeners Share Seeds & Ideas

On Saturday, January 25, neighbors came together for the second annual free garden seed swap event at The Lincoln Center, where neighbors gathered to exchange their favorite plant seeds. It was a wonderful opportunity to connect with fellow gardeners, exchange knowledge, and discuss ideas for our Community Garden at 302 Lincoln Street. It was a great way to start planning for the spring growing season.

If you have ideas for the Community Garden, or want to help out with it, please reach out to Erin Barcy at QualityOfLife@bateshendricks.org.
